THE FAMOUS FINAL SCENE

Think in terms of floats burned
Think of football seasons that must end
See your grades rise and fall
Hoping they will rise again
Everything must have an end
Like your first romance that ended in tears
Like the first sip you took from that one beer
It's the famous final Senior Year.

And how you tried to make it work
Did you really think it could
How you tried to make it last
Did you really think it would.
Like a prisoner who's been penned up too long
Now it's finally time for our escape
Yes, it's finally time, the world's ours to make
Leave it behind with smiles and cheers
It's the famous final Senior Year.

History

It's been coming on so long
First as Freshmen, we didn't belong
Then as Sophomores, rolling along
Next we were Juniors, mighty and strong
Seems like oh so long ago.
Now the football field has all been set
And the nights are growing warm.
Soon graduation will be here
And the end is drawing near
It's the famous final Senior Year.

Now the speeches have all been read
And good-byes have all been said
Now you move toward the door
Here it comes, the hardest part
Take the diploma, the end is here
It's the famous final Senior Year.

It will never be the same
As the light fades from the sky
You look around and try not to cry
Then you file out, calm and serene
From the famous final scene.

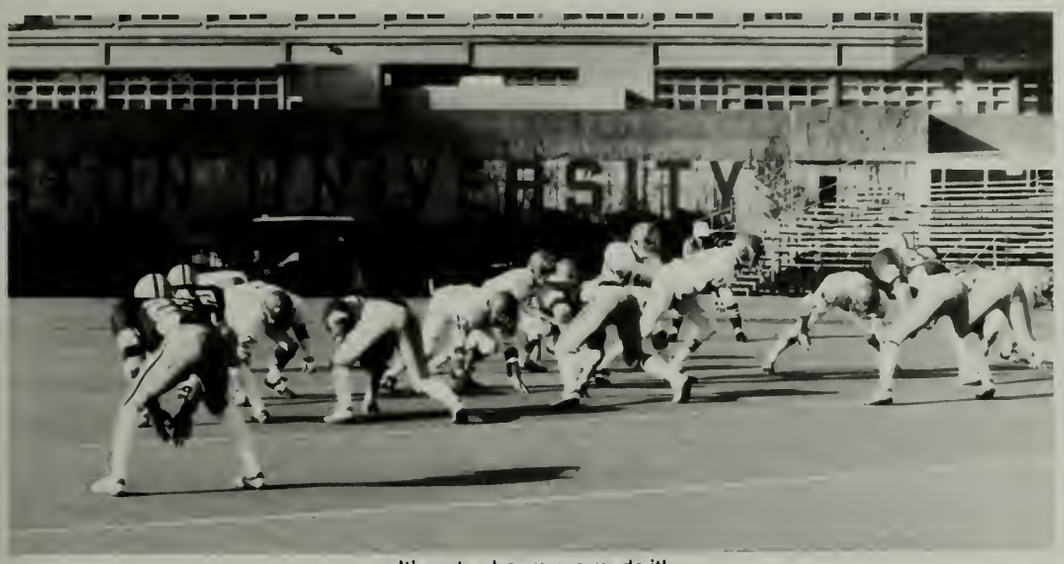
BOWL



It's not a dream, we made it!

"What do you say?" "I say amputate it."

Simon says, "Raise your hands."

The 1979 football season is one that Scituations will remember for years to come. The coaches and the players deserve high praise for their perseverance and dedication. Although the boys did not surpass all of their opponents in size or strength, their enthusiasm and skill led them to the O.C.L. championship and the 1979 Superbowl. Coach Johnson feels one of the main reasons for their success can be summed up in the following poem:

THINKING

If you think you are beaten, you are;
if you think you dare not you don't;
if you like to win but think you can't,
it's almost a cinch you won't.
If you think you'll lose, you're lost
for out in the world we find,
success begins with a fellow's will;
it's all in the state of mind.
If you think you are outclassed, you are;
you've got to think high to rise;
you've got to be sure of yourself before you ever win a prize.
Life's battles do not always go to the stronger or the faster man;
but sooner or later the man who wins
is the man who thinks he can.

"Take this, stick it under your shirt and run."

Colegio Internacional de Carab obo
Apartado 103
Valencia, Venezuela
February 2, 1980

Hi Guys,

You Know, we're having a great year; there's only one thing amiss . . . we miss you.

When we left at the end of Aug., our one comforting thought was that we'd see you at the Senior Dinner Dance in December, but we couldn't get a flight home in time. Now we find that our school here in Valencia does not recess in time for us to attend your graduation. We are so disappointed. The one comforting thought is that you've had great leadership this year with Jane, Tracy, Sue, and Kathy and your super sponsors, Ms. Kathy Fortin and Mr. Peter Comrack.

From all of the reports we've received down here, you have had a great year; lots of fun get-togethers, OCL championships, division or regional crowns, early acceptances, scholarships, and all sorts of other honors. We're really proud of the Class of '80; you guys have always been hard workers and we know that you'll continue to work to achieve what you want from life.

We, too, have had a super year. Again, as at SHS, it was the people who made it all so worthwhile. We really enjoyed our fellow teachers but, as at SHS, it was the students who really 'made the place.'

The kids at Valencia are really similar to Scituate ones; the major difference is that their whole life revolves around the school, whereas you are also involved in community activities, jobs, etc.

AND DANNY

Because Valencia is the major industrial city in Venezuela, many oil connected companies from all over the world have located one of their plants here. In our English and social studies classrooms, then, a number of nationalities were represented. Something that amazed us both was their facility with the English language.

We, too, are becoming rapidly enculturated.

One of us is taking Spanish lessons (Guess which one.) Both of us now can go shopping and are able to converse with the Venezuelans. While many do have the stereotypical picture of the 'Ugly American,' we're doing what we can to dispel that image.

We usually spend our weekends camping on the beaches with our friends. One of our biggest thrills was when we managed to catch a whole flock of scarlet ibis in flight. (Remember the short story on the freshman English final?)

Let's face it . . . letters are so stilted. What we really want to do is to sit down with all of you and play the old 'Remember when . . .?' game. Then, too, at the risk of sounding schmaltzy, we want to tell you just how much you will always mean to us. Of course, we want to do the inevitable, too; we want to wish you the very, very best 'Out There.' We both know that you'll 'knock 'em dead . . .'

Love,
'Dangerous Dan' Osgood and 'Miz Molly' Reddy
